WAR GOING ONE YEAR AND END IS NOT YET

Great European Nations Have Staked Their
All on Final Outcome. Whole World is Involved

The second year of the European war opened Sunday. On August 1, 1914, Germany declared war against Russia and the last chance vanished of localizing the Austro-Serbian war, declared three days previously by Austria-Hungary.

All the great powers of Europe were drawn into a struggle the like of which history has not heretofore recorded. Eleven Nations are at war and almost all lands are affected, directly or indirectly. Millions of men have been killed, wounded or carried to captivity in hostile countries. Billions of dollars have been expended. Thousands of square miles of territory have been devastated and hundreds of cities and towns laid waste. Half the world is in mourning for the dead. And although the war has been in progress with unexampled fury for a year, the result may be summarized in one brief sentence: No decisive results have been achieved and the end is not in sight.

ed and the end is not in sight.

Preparing for Winter Campaign.

Determination to pursue the war to a decisive ending has been expressed by high officials of all the belligerent Nations, preparations are being made for next winter's campaign, and in fact indications from Europe are that it is more likely to increase in size rather than decrease. It is still an open question whether Bulgaria, Roumania or Greece will be drawn in.

In view of the immensity of the struggle, previous standards count for little in considering the price the world is paying. The figures involved are so vast as to convey little meaning. The Nations at war have poured out their resources of men and gold without limit. The usual standards of life have been subordinated or disregarded, and in some cases social, industrial and political activities have been virtually reorganized on a militaristic basis, and make all contribute to the supreme necessities of war.

It is impossible to obtain accurate statistics of the number of men engaged, the casualties and the cost. For obvious reasons the size of the various armies is kept secret. Most of the Nations do not consider it expedient to reveal the number of casualties; in fact, Great Britain is the only one which has given out official totals. As to the money expended, there are available only partial statistics.

More than half the population of the world lives in the countries at war. The population of the warring countries is estimated at 947,000,000, and of the countries at peace at 797,000,000. The population of the Entente Nations is perhaps five times as great as that of their opponents. The number of men under arms has been estimated variously, usually in the neighborhood of 20,000,000. RUSSIA STILL HOLDS AGAINST TEUTON'S STORM

Reports Continue That Russians Are Withdrawing But They Still Hold City—Hope for German Fire to be Withdrawn.

[By Associated Press.]
London, Aug. 2.—While there is increasing evidence that the Russians are withdrawing from the Warsaw region, it appears they still hold the city.

Warsaw correspondents here filed their usual dispatches to Warsaw papers today.

The Russians still hope for the allies in the West to create a diversion to draw off some of the Germans from the Russian front.

On the French front last night there was much infantry fighting, but no marked gains or losses.

CONSTANTINOPLE'S BIG FIRE.

[By Associated Press.]
Athens, Aug. 2.—Arrivals from Constantinople say that 5,000 buildings, including the German hospital, field with wounded, were destroyed by fire last week.

ITALY TAKES PRISONERS.

[By Associated Press.]
Rome, Aug. 2.—The Stogani News Agency says the Italians have taken 17,000 Austrian prisoners since Italy's entry into the war, not including 380 officers.

Two British Steamers Sunk.

[By Associated Press.]
London, Aug. 2.—German submarines have sunk the British steamers Clintonia and Fulgens. The latter's crew was saved.

Washington Gets Notes.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Aug. 2.—The United States today received the German note on the Frye case and also England's supplemental note of restrictions to neutral commerce.

The British note answers the American protest against sending certain cases to the prize courts.

German Submarine Gets Another.

[By Associated Press.]
London, Aug. 2.—A submarine sank the British steamer Benvorlich. Her crew was saved.

Russian Destroyer Lost.

[By Associated Press.]
Berlin, Aug. 2.—A Russian destroyer was sunk in the Baltic. The cause is unknown here.

Chandler, Okla., Aug. 2.—Henry Starr, bandit, pleaded guilty to bank robbery here today. The robbery was committed last spring. He was sentenced to twenty-five years.

NOTICE.

Strayed from my place near Dinkins, Texas, about three weeks ago, one brown mare mule, 15 hands high, 8 years old, brand on shoulder very dim, can't tell what it is, long mane and tail. Last heard of going north toward Bryan, Texas. Will pay $5 for information leading to her recovery. Notify me at Dinkins, Texas, by phone. G. W. DUNLAP.

BE ready for the unexpected guests who may "pop in" most any time. Have your pantry well supplied with Canned Goods and Saaple Groceries that will permit the preparation of a splendid meal on short notice.

TEXAS FARMERS CONGRESS OPENS AT A. & M.

Address of Welcome Was Delivered by President
W. B. Bizzell—Program Includes Names of Notables.

College Station, Tex., Aug. 2.—That the United States today stands at the turning point in her economic system and that she confronts the grave danger of retrogression, was presented before the opening meeting of the eighteenth annual session of the Texas Farmers' Congress here today by Dr. Cyril G. Hopkins, agronomist for the University of Illinois. He spoke on "The Relation of Land to Prosperity." He pointed to the ratio of our population increase, our acreage and production increase as proofs.

President W. B. Bizzell of the Texas A. & M. College, in an address of welcome, warned against the tendency to regard legislation as a cure-all for social disorders, and particularly attacked what he characterized as the mania for legislated rural credit. "We must remember and reflect that in lean years, when crops fail, losses in State aid benefits, so-called, will be returned to the government through taxation."

H. E. Singleton, president of the congress, in his annual address, made a strong plea for more extensive rural education. The response to the address of welcome was delivered by John Gorham of Waco, vice-president of the congress. President Singleton announced the appointment of committees as follows:

Resolutions—E. W. Kirkpatrick, McKinney; Fritz Engelhardt, Eagle Lake; A. M. Ferguson, Sherman. Educational—J. N. Ramsey, Austin; M. Faulkner, Waco; Rufus J. Nelson, Dallas.
